puts you in the know!

Toy Fair 2011 is the biggest toy show in North America, as we now know from walking every inch of the trade show floor! We were in search of the best new toys for grandkids, and we found and tested some real winners.

Are your grandkids less into architectural engineering and more into making slime balls and bubbling potions? Take a look at The Magic School Bus Chemistry Lab. For 25 years kids have learned science from The Magic School

Bus books and TV shows; now they can jump into the action. Set contains over 50 cool experiments that will teach and entertain the grandkids. Ages 5+. [The Magic School Bus Chemistry Lab, $40. Full Review w/demo]
